EXTRACTS

FROM

LAWS OF THE CONFEDERATE STATES, &c.

The POSTMASTER GENERAL requests that bidders, guarantors, sureties, and all persons concerned, or intending to be concerned, in mail contracts, will carefully read and examine the abstract of laws here presented, and also the forms and instructions at the end of this book, in order that bids may be made and liabilities assumed understandingly, and that all misapprehension or cause of complaint hereafter may be avoided.

POSTMASTERS are required to make themselves familiar with these laws and instructions, that they may be able to inform and direct others.

An Act to continue in force certain laws of the United States of America.

Be it enacted by the Confederate States of America in Congress assembled: That all the laws of the United States of America, in force and in use in the Confederate States of America on the first day of November last, and not inconsistent with the Constitution of the Confederate States, be and the same are hereby continued in force until altered or repealed by the Congress.

Adopted, February 9, 1861.

Postmasters, clerks, and others employed in post offices, cannot be contractors.

SEC. 42, act of March 3, 1825. That no postmaster, assistant postmaster, or clerk employed in any post office, shall be a contractor or concerned in a contract for carrying the mail.

SEC. 26, act of July 3, 1836. That if any person employed in the Post Office Department, or as postmaster, shall become interested in any mail contract, or act as agent, with or without compensation, in any matter or thing relating to business in said department, for any contractor, or person offering to become a contractor, he shall be forthwith dismissed from office, and shall be liable to pay so much money as would have been realized from said contract, to be recovered in an action of debt in any court having jurisdiction thereof, in the name of the Confederate States, for the use of the Post Office Department; and it shall be the duty of the Postmaster General to cause prosecution to be instituted.

Contractors, carriers, &c., to be sworn.

SEC. 2, act of March 3, 1825. That the Postmaster General, and all other persons employed in the General Post Office, or in the care, custody, or conveyance of the mail, shall, previous to entering upon the duties assigned to them, or the execution of their trusts, and before they shall be entitled to receive any emolument therefor, respectively take and subscribe the following oath, or affirmation, before some magistrate, and cause a certificate thereof to be filed in the General Post Office: "I, A B, do swear, (or affirm, as the case may be,) that I will faithfully perform all the duties required of me, and abstain from everything forbidden by the laws in relation to the establishment of the post office and post roads within the Confederate States." Every person who shall be, in any manner, employed in the care, custody, conveyance, or management of the mail, shall be subject to all pains, penalties, and forfeitures for violating the injunctions, or neglecting the duties required of him by the laws relating to the establishment of the post office and post roads, whether such person shall have taken the oath, or affirmation, above prescribed or not.

Conveyance of letters, &c., on post roads, forbidden.

SEC. 3, act of March 2, 1827. That no person, other than the Postmaster General, or his authorized agents, shall set up any foot or horse post, for the conveyance of letters and packets, upon any post road which is or may be established as such by law. And every person who shall offend herein shall incur a penalty of not exceeding fifty dollars for each letter or packet so carried.

(Penalty increased by 9th, 10th, 11th and 13th sections of the act of March 3, 1845.)

In relation to failure to enter into contract.

SEC. 44, act of March 3, 1825. That any person or persons who shall hereafter make any proposal in writing to carry or transport the mail upon any route or routes which may be advertised to be let, and such person or persons shall be determined by the Postmaster General to be entitled to the contract by virtue of such proposition, and such person or persons shall fail or refuse to enter into an obligation, with good and sufficient security, to perform such contract within the time required by the Postmaster General in such advertisement, such person or persons shall forfeit and pay so much money as shall be the difference between the amount contained in such proposal and the amount the Postmaster General shall have to pay for the same transportation of the mail on such route or routes, which sum may be recovered by the Postmaster General in an action on the case.

Liabilities of guarantors of bidders who fail to enter into contract.

SEC. 27, act of July 2, 1836. That every proposal for the transportation of the mail shall be accompanied by a written guaranty, signed by one or more responsible persons, to the effect that he or they undertake that the bidder or bidders will, if his or their bid be accepted, enter into an obligation, in such time as may be prescribed by the Postmaster General, with good and sufficient sureties, to perform the service proposed. No proposal shall be considered unless accompanied by such guaranty. If, after acceptance of a proposal, and notification thereof to the bidder or bidders, he or they shall fail to enter into an obligation within the time prescribed by the Postmaster General, with good and sufficient sureties, for the performance of the service, then the Postmaster General shall proceed to contract with some other person or persons for the performance of said service, and shall forthwith cause the difference between the amount contained in the proposal so guarantied and the amount for which he may have contracted for the performance of said service, for the whole period of the proposal, to be charged up against the said bidder or bidders and his or their guarantor or guarantors, and the same may be immediately recovered by the Confederate States, for the use of the Post Office Department, in an action of debt against either or all of the said persons.

Bids of failing contractors may be rejected.

SEC. 24, act of July 2, 1836. That the Postmaster General shall not be bound to consider the bid of any person who shall have wilfully or negligently failed to perform or execute a prior contract.

In relation to combinations among bidders to prevent bidding.

SEC. 28, act of July 2, 1836. That no contract for the transportation of the mail shall knowingly be made by the Postmaster General with any person who shall have entered into any combination, or proposed to enter into any combination, to prevent the making of any bid for a mail contract by any other person or persons, or who shall have made any agreement, or shall have given or performed, or promised to give or perform, any consideration whatever, or to do, or not to do, anything whatever, in order to induce any other person or persons not to bid for a mail contract. And if any person so offending be a mail contractor, he may be forthwith dismissed from the service of the department: Provided, That whenever the Postmaster General shall exercise the power conferred on him by this section, he shall transmit a copy or statement of the evidence on which he acts to Congress at its next session.

No pay to be made until contracts are executed; nor for additional service, unless previously ordered.

SEC. 29, act of July 2, 1836. That no person whose bid for the transportation of the mail may be accepted, shall receive any pay until he shall have executed his contract according to law and the regulations of the department; nor shall any payment be made for any additional regular service in the transportation of the mail, unless the same shall have been rendered in obedience to a prior legal order of the Postmaster General.

Requiring service to be let to the lowest bidder, &c. &c.

SEC. 18, act of March 3, 1845. That it shall be the duty of the Postmaster General, in all future lettings of contracts for the transportation of the mail, to let the same, in every case, to the lowest bidder tendering sufficient guaranties for faithful performance, without other reference to the mode of such transportation than may be necessary to provide for the due celerity, certainty, and security of such transportation; nor shall any new contractor hereafter be required to purchase out or to take at a valuation the stock or vehicle of any previous contractor for the same route.

No additional allowance unless for additional service.

SEC. 43, act of March 3, 1825. That no additional allowance shall be made by the Postmaster General to the contractor or carrier of any mail, on any route, over or beyond the amount stipulated in the contract entered into for the transportation of the mail on such route, unless additional service shall be required; and then no additional compensation shall be allowed to exceed the exact proportion of the original amount to the additional duties required.

Consolidated bids prohibited, and increase of compensation restricted.

SEC. 23, act of July 3, 1836. No consolidated or combination bid shall be received, and no additional compensation shall be made to any mail contractor, so as that the compensation for additional regular service shall exceed the exact proportion which the original compensation bears to the original services stipulated to be performed; and no extra allowance shall be made to any contractor by the Postmaster General for an increase of expedition in the transportation of the mail, unless thereby the employment of additional stock or carriers by the contractor shall be rendered necessary; and in such case the additional compensation shall never bear a greater proportion to the additional stock or carriers rendered necessary than the sum stipulated in the original contract bears to the stock and carriers necessarily employed in its execution.

By the same section of the same law no change can be made in the "terms of an existing contract"—that is, the schedule time for performing a trip cannot be increased, nor can horse service be improved into stage service, two-horse stage into four-horse, &c., &c. Changes of these kinds can only be effected by re-advertising for a new letting, and making a new contract superseding the existing contract and service.

Schedules to be furnished and posted up in post offices.—Registers to be returned and reports made.

SEC. 31, act of July 2, 1836. That it shall be the duty of the Postmaster General to furnish to the postmasters at the termination of each route a schedule, specifying the times of arrival and departure at their offices, respectively, of each mail, a copy of which the postmaster shall post up in some conspicuous place in his office; and the Postmaster General shall also furnish a notice in like manner of any change or alteration in the arrivals and departures which may be ordered by him. And it shall be the duty of every postmaster promptly to report to the department every delinquency, neglect, or malpractice of the contractors, their agents, or carriers, that may come to his knowledge. And the Postmaster General shall cause to be kept, and returned to the department at short and regular intervals, by postmasters at the ends of routes, and such others as he may think proper, registers showing the exact times of the arrivals and departures of the mails.

By act of Congress, approved April 21, 1808, no member of Congress can be a contractor, or be concerned, directly or indirectly, in any contract with the government; and by the same act it is made a high misdemeanor for any officer of the United [Confederate] States to enter, in its behalf, into a contract with a member of Congress.

The 7th section of the law of March 3, 1825, enacts that no other than a free white male person shall be employed in carrying the mail; and, by regulation of the department, no carrier should be employed who is under sixteen years of age.

The authority to establish post routes is not vested in the Postmaster General, nor can he extend or lengthen those already established. He can only place mail service on such roads as have been declared post routes by act of Congress. All rail roads, plank roads, canals, navigable rivers, and other waters, are, however, post roads by law; and also the road from the nearest post office on an established route to the court-house of any county which may be otherwise without a mail.

The Postmaster General has no power under the law to release bidders and contractors and their guarantors and sureties from their liabilities on the allegation of real or supposed mistakes of any kind in making proposals. He particularly requests that, before bidding, the fullest inquiry and investigation be made in regard to the route, distance, service, weight of mails, cost of stock, feed, and all expenses existing and likely to occur during the contract term, and with due consideration of the consequences imposed by law on delinquents.

The Auditor of the Treasury for the Post Office Department has found so much inconvenience, risk, and expense to result from the practice of contractors in making drafts on their pay in advance of the quarterly settlements, that he has been compelled to adopt the following regulation, to which he will rigidly adhere, and of which contractors and all concerned will take notice :

“ But one draft for the pay on each route per quarter will be paid or filed for payment in this office. This draft should state on its face that it is the only one for the quarter and the route (both to be specified) on which it is drawn ; and the signature thereto should be attested by the postmaster at the place where it may be drawn and one other witness, and each assignment thereof should be attested by two witnesses.”

It will be perceived that a draft so drawn can only be received and filed in the office by courtesy of the Auditor ; it cannot be accepted as business paper is usually accepted, and imposes no obligation, and raises no claim on the Confederate States, except to pay the amount at the proper time, or so much as may be due the drawer on the quarter named, and no other. But if the whole amount due the contractor be not sufficient to meet the draft, it cannot be surrendered, but, though a portion only be paid, it must remain in the office as a “ voucher” for the payment, as the law requires of all vouchers.

Form of Proposal, Guaranty and Certificate.

The undersigned, ——— whose post office address is ———, county of ———, state of ———, proposes to convey the mails of the Confederate States, from July 1, 1863, to June 30, 1867, on Route No. ———, between ——— and ———, under the advertisement of the Postmaster General, dated December 31, 1862, "with celerity, certainty and security,"* for the annual sum of ——— dollars.

This proposal is made with full knowledge of the distance of the route, the weight of the mail to be carried, and all other particulars in reference to the route and service; and also after careful examination of the laws and instructions attached to the advertisement.

Dated

GUARANTY.

The undersigned, residing at ———, state of ———, undertake that, if the foregoing bid for carrying the mail on route No. ———, be accepted by the Postmaster General, the bidder shall, prior to the 1st day of August 1863, enter into the required obligation, or contract, to perform the service proposed, with good and sufficient sureties.

This we do understanding distinctly the obligations and liabilities assumed by guarantors under the 27th section of the act of congress of July 2, 1836, and now in force in the Confederate States, by virtue of an act approved 9th February 1861.

Dated

CERTIFICATE.

The undersigned, postmaster at ———, state of ———, certifies, UNDER HIS OATH OF OFFICE, that he is acquainted with the above guarantors, and knows them to be men of property, and able to make good their guaranty.

Dated

* See act of congress of March 3, 1845, sec. 18.

The proposal must be signed by the bidder, or bidders, the guaranty by not less than two guarantors, and the certificate by a postmaster or a judge of a court of record.

Send by mail, direct to the "Chief of the Contract Bureau, Post Office Department, Richmond, Virginia," marked "Proposals, State of ———."

INSTRUCTIONS,

Containing Conditions to be incorporated in the Contracts to the extent the Department may deem proper.

1. Seven minutes are allowed to each intermediate office, when not otherwise specified, for assorting the mails; but, on railroad and steamboat routes, there is to be no more delay than is sufficient for an exchange of the mail bags.

2. On railroad and steamboat lines, and other routes where the mode of conveyance admits of it, the special agents of the Post Office Department, also post office blanks, mail bags, locks and keys, are to be conveyed without extra charge.

3. Steamboat companies are required to take the mail from, and deliver it into, the post offices at the commencement and end of their routes, and to and from all offices not more than eighty rods from a landing. Proposals may be submitted for the performance of all other side service—that is, for offices over eighty rods from a landing.

Receipts will be required for mail bags conveyed in charge of persons employed by railroad companies. There will also be “way bills” prepared by postmasters, or other agents of the department, to accompany the mails, specifying the number and destination of the several bags. On the principal stage routes, likewise, receipts will be required and way bills forwarded; the latter to be examined by the several postmasters, to insure regularity in the delivery of mail bags.

4. No pay will be made for trips not performed; and for each of such omissions, not satisfactorily explained, three times the pay of the trip may be deducted. For arrivals so far behind time as to break connection with depending mails, and not sufficiently excused, one-fourth of the compensation for the trip is subject to forfeiture. Deduction will also be ordered for a grade of performance inferior to that specified in the contract. For repeated delinquencies of the kind herein specified, enlarged penalties, proportioned to the nature thereof and the importance of the mail, may be made.

5. For leaving behind or throwing off the mails, or any portion of them, for the admission of passengers, or for being concerned in setting up or running an express, conveying intelligence in advance of the mail, a quarter's pay may be deducted.

6. Fines will be imposed, unless the delinquency be promptly and satisfactorily explained by certificates of postmasters or the affidavits of other credible persons, for failing to arrive in contract time; for neglecting to take the mail from, or deliver it into, a post office; for suffering it to be wet, injured, destroyed, robbed, or lost; and for refusing, after demand, to convey the mail as frequently as the contractor runs, or is concerned in running a coach, car, or steamboat on a route.

7. The postmaster general may annul the contract for repeated failures to run agreeably to contract; for violating the post office laws, or disobeying the instructions of the department; for refusing to discharge a carrier when required by the department to do so; for running an express as aforesaid; or for transporting persons or packages conveying mailable matter out of the mail.

8. The postmaster general may order an increase of service on a route by allowing therefor a pro rata increase on the contract pay. He may change schedules of departures and arrivals in all cases, and particularly to make them conform to connections with railroads, without increase of pay, provided the running time be not abridged. He may also order an increase of speed, allowing, within the restrictions of the law, a pro rata increase of pay for the additional stock or carriers, if any. The contractor may, however, in the case of increase of speed, relinquish the contract, by giving prompt notice to the department that he prefers doing so to carrying the order into effect. The postmaster general may also curtail or discontinue the service, in whole or in part, at pro rata decrease of pay, allowing one month's extra compensation on the amount dispensed with, whenever, in his opinion, the public interests require the change, or in case he desires to supersede it by a different grade of transportation.

9. Payments will be made by collections from, or drafts on, postmasters, or otherwise, after the expiration of each quarter—say in February, May, August and November.

10. The distances are given according to the best information; but no increased pay will be allowed should they be greater than advertised, if the points to be supplied be correctly stated. Bidders must inform themselves on this point, and also in reference to the weight of the mail, the condition of roads, hills, streams, &c., and all tollbridges, ferries, or obstructions of any kind by which expense may be incurred. No claim for additional pay, based on such ground, can be considered; nor for alleged mistakes or misapprehension as to the degree of service; nor for bridges destroyed, ferries discontinued, or other obstructions increasing distance, occurring during the contract term. Offices established after this advertisement is issued, and also during the contract term, are to be visited without extra pay, if the distance be not increased.

11. A bid received after the last day and hour named, or without the guaranty required by law and a certificate as to the sufficiency of such guaranty, cannot be considered in competition with a regular proposal reasonable in amount.

12. Bidders should first propose for service strictly according to the advertisement, and then, if they desire, separately for different service; and if the regular bid be the lowest offered for the advertised service, the other propositions may be considered.

13. There should be but one route bid for in a proposal. Consolidated or combination bids ("proposing one sum for two or more routes") are forbidden by law, and cannot be considered.

14. The route, the service, the yearly pay, the name and residence of the bidder (that is, his usual post office address), and those of each member of a firm, where a company offers, should be distinctly stated.

15. Bidders are requested to use, as far as practicable, the printed form of proposal furnished by the department, to write out in full the sum of their bids, and to retain copies of them.

Altered bids should not be submitted; nor should bids once submitted be withdrawn. No withdrawal of a bidder or guarantor will be allowed unless dated and received before the last day for receiving proposals.

Each bid must be guaranteed by two responsible persons.

General guaranties cannot be admitted. The bid and guaranty should be signed plainly with the full name of each person.

The department reserves the right to reject any bid which may be deemed extravagant, and also to disregard the bids of failing contractors and bidders.

16. The bid should be sealed, superscribed "Mail Proposals, State of ———," addressed "Chief of the Contract Bureau, Richmond, Virginia," and sent by mail, not by or to an agent; and postmasters will not enclose proposals (or letters of any kind) in their quarterly returns.

17. The contracts are to be executed and returned to the department by or before the 1st day of August 1863; but the service must be commenced on the 1st July preceding, or on the mail day next after that date, whether the contracts be executed or not. No proposition to transfer will be considered until the contracts are executed and received at the department; and then no transfer will be allowed unless good and sufficient reasons therefor are given, to be determined by the department. In all cases the retiring contractor will be required to become one of the sureties on the new contract.

18. Railroad routes are not advertised, and postmasters at offices on or near railroads, but more than eighty rods from a station, will, immediately after the 30th of March next, report their exact distance from the nearest station, and how they are otherwise supplied with the mail, to enable the postmaster general to direct a mail-messenger supply from the 1st of July next.

19. Section eighteen of an act of congress approved March 3, 1845, and the 2d section of an act approved 15th March 1861, provide that contracts for the transportation of the mail shall be let "in every case to the lowest bidder tendering sufficient guaranties for faithful performance, without other reference to the mode of transportation than may be necessary to provide for the due celerity, and security of such transportation." Under these bids that propose to transport the mail with "celerity, certainty and security," having been decided to be the only legal bids, are construed as providing for the entire mail, however large, and whatever may be the n conveyance necessary to insure its "celerity, certainty, and security," and will have the preference over all others.

20. A modification of a bid in any of its essential terms is tantamount to a new bid, and cannot be received, so as to interfere with a regular competition, after the last hour set for receiving bids. Making a new bid, with guaranty and certificate, is the only way to modify a previous bid.

21. Postmasters are to be careful not to certify the sufficiency of guarantors or sureties without knowing that they are persons of sufficient responsibility; and all bidders, guarantors and sureties are distinctly notified that on a failure to enter into or perform the contracts for the service proposed for in the accepted bids, the legal liabilities will be enforced against them.

22. Present contractors, and persons known at the department, must, equally with others, procure guarantors and certificates of their sufficiency substantially in the forms above prescribed. The certificates of sufficiency must be signed by a postmaster or by a judge of a court of record. No other certificate will be admitted.

JOHN H. REAGAN,
Postmaster General.
